

HANDLEBAR PACKS

Compress the contents of the pack by rolling the end of the pack over itself until no empty space remains. Then fasten the buckles.

Secure the straps around the handlebars by lacing the strap through the black buckle.

Lace the strap back through the buckle a second time in the reverse direction. Pull firmly to ensure the bag is secured to the handlebars.

Secure the remaining strap around the head tube to minimize pack movement while riding.